

Sign/effect agreement between base and alternative scoring is partial; the alternative metric is reported for transparency only and no primary claim is changed.